Western Region 2A Resolution – Child Care

That the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan (MN-S) Provincial Métis Council endorse the following resolution as presented:

“That the Métis Nation and Ministries of the MN-S, when planning conferences, engagements, Métis Nation Legislative Assemblies, and Annual General Assemblies, make available for participants, all-day childcare for the duration of the above-mentioned events;

That the duty of organizing the childcare and activities will be at the direction of the relevant region’s Regional Council, which will make the necessary preparations for the children; and

That all participating childcare providers will have completed CPR training, a babysitters’ course, and a criminal record check, before being allowed to interact with the children”.
