

Resolution Duly Approved by the Métis Nation-Saskatchewan
Provincial Métis Council on February 22, 2024
#240222-06

Prince Albert Housing Project

WHEREAS the Métis Nation – Saskatchewan (MN-S) recognizes the distinctiveness of Métis identity, culture, values and language – inclusive of knowledge keepers, Elders, Youth and distinctive resources – which is incorporated into proposals and decisions of the Provincial Métis Council (PMC);

WHEREAS the Ministry of Housing works across all MN-S ministries to create a collaborative process to review new and existing programs;

WHEREAS the Ministry of Housing has an anticipated surplus of $6,926,951.20 from a number of sources including the First Time Home Buyers fund ($6,108,052.21), Emergency Repair fund ($506,866.65), Training and Capacity ($116,000.00), and the Housing Conference ($196,032.34);

WHEREAS the Ministry of Housing has developed a Rent-to-Own pilot program;

WHEREAS the Ministry of Infrastructure is developing a subdivision in Prince Albert;

WHEREAS there are MN-S citizens that face barriers entering into home ownership and the Ministry of Housing strives to create economic and social prosperity for all citizens; and

WHEREAS the Finance Committee recommends to the PMC and is in support of homeownership opportunities for Metis citizens and addressing housing shortages;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the PMC approve the reallocation of surplus funds in the 2023-24 fiscal year in the amount of $6,926,951.20 within the Housing portfolio, to be utilized for a Rent-to-Own pilot program in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.
